We've heard a lot about the race-related violence in Boston's Roxbury section. (Certain parts of Philly are no models of peace, either.) The Students' Human Relations Committee, our private discussions, Highlights editorials, and the school rap sessions show concern for the problems caused by a lack of brotherhood.

Remembering all those who have suffered because of it, we hereby dedicate our futures, our hearts, and our memory-laden testimonial of Olney life, the Trojan, to the hope that people will learn to reach out and be considerate of other human beings, confirming their equality.

DEDICATION

If we don't stop seeing black and white
and notice only grey,
Insanity's inhuman storms
will blow us all away,
'Cause prejudice is a kitchen
that's freezing though it's hot;
It's making people be so cold,
they're what they're really not.
They're matches which are wrapped in ice,
cool first, then growling flame.
What started out as hairy chess
no longer is a game.
The many cooks can't spoil broth spoiled from the first.
They grin to watch it boil,
hoping loudly for the worst.
So pass pot-holders from hand to hand while standing in a square.
Face the four corners of this cornered world
and of the cook, beware!
The kitchen's getting hotter still;
the grey-haired men are colder.
Our hearts with fairness we must fill because we're getting older,
And must stop seeing black and white
but notice only grey,
And move toward left to do the right
so fear won't block the way.

RATION
PLEDGES & PROMISES

To the Class of 1975:

As the Class of 1975 completes its tenure of duty at Olney High School, I should like to suggest that this class represents a beginning of what I like to call a "Return of Confidence."

After the horror of Viet Nam and the tragic experience of Watergate, it would be natural for a nation suffering from inflation and high unemployment to shrug its shoulders and await the inevitable "doomsday."

But I don't see that. I see the excitement of learning burning brightly in the eyes of this senior class. I see achievement and dedication and hope springing from each breast.

What this generation needs is a restoration of confidence. This whole country needs an optimistic outlook. We know that the solutions to the problems we face are not easy. Many haven't been developed. Our finest minds are not addressing themselves to these problems. But the solutions and the minds to create the solutions are here.

I have every confidence that a Thomas Jefferson or a Martin Luther King or a Winston Churchill is here waiting to come forth. Our current despair is but a prelude to a better society, a better world, a better life.

Exciting and rewarding new ideas and prospects will begin with the Class of '75. I know, because I know you.

Sincerely,
Mervin L. Krimins
Principal

CABINET

Seated: WALTER NACKONEY, RITA DeNICUOLO, LYLA BUDNICK, MARIE BAUER and MICHAEL DiGIACOMO. Standing: THEODORE VARBALOW, RAPHAEL BECKER, PHILIP DEHNICK, JAMES WOODSIDE, JOSEPH PUTRO, THOMAS LYNCH and JOSEPH HOWELL.

VICE-PRINCIPALS

To the Class of 1975:

Graduating classes, all of them bright-eyed and hopeful of the future, have come and gone, and, I suppose that many words of advice to graduating seniors have been written countless times. Yet, hackneyed or hollow, such words are meant to convey the sincere concerns all of us feel for you who are leaving us.

A theme such as "Reach the Higher Ground" seems to embody all of the Go-Forth-Into-The-World messages of the past with a wisdom that is ageless and fervent. It suggests a rejection of the shabby and meaningless. It reflects a desire to attain what is real and true. It is the highest goal which you can set for yourself and, as such, it becomes the best advice anyone can give you. Now, as you enter a new phase of life, it is essential to put away the common trivial wants and aim for those goals which will make your life meaningful.

It is by no means unreasonable to believe in dreams for they are, in a sense, the "Higher Ground." Therefore, set your goals and go forth with a new strength and vigor remembering that the sky is always the limit.

Sincerely,
Michael DiGiamomo
Vice-Principal

Michael DiGiacomo

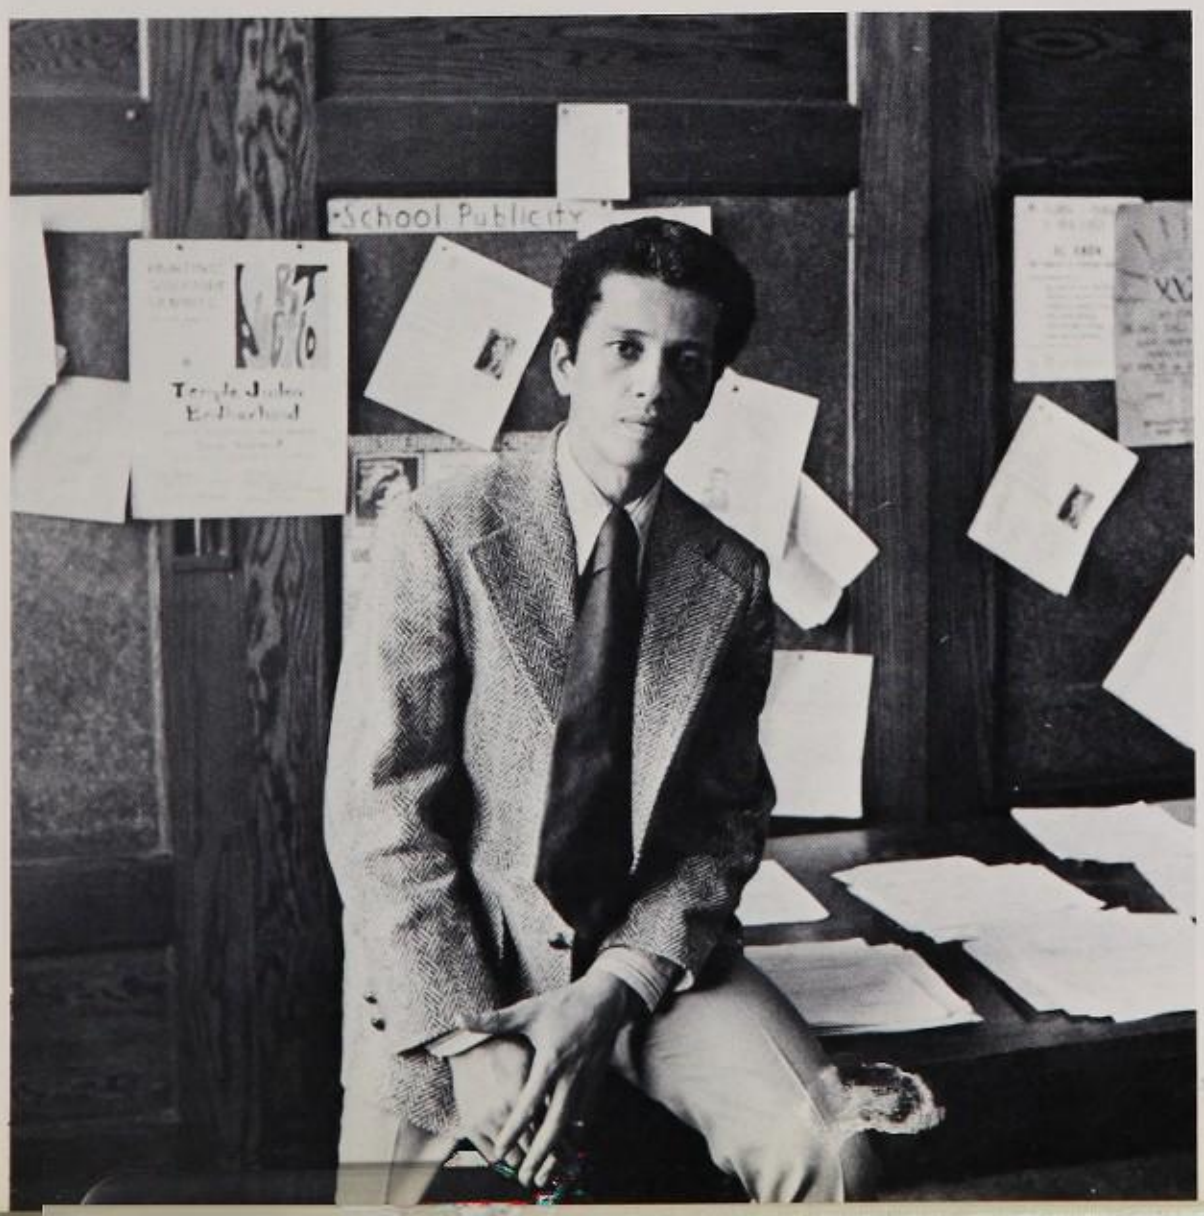
Thomas G. Lynch, III



To the Class of 1975:

In 1963, the American Mount Everest Expedition attained its objective on May 1st when Nawang Gombu and Jim Whittaker reached the snowy summit of Everest at 1 P.M. by way of the South Col route. The final stages of the great adventure had actually begun on February 13 with the expedition's arrival at Katmandu. This represented six weeks of time to finally get into position and into physical shape for their attempt to "reach the higher ground." And all this superhuman effort was in the spirit of great adventure.

If Noah in the urgency for survival had not had the Ark on which to depend, his reach for the higher ground probably would have matched the epic efforts of modern mountaineers.

Then, there is the other kind of striving which Dag Hammerskjold defined as, "Never let success hide its emptiness from you, achievement its nothingness, toil its desolation. And so keep alive the incentive to push on further, that pain in the soul which drives us beyond ourselves."

Whether a reach for the higher ground is a matter of high adventure or sheer survival or a matter of personal achievement, may your reach in life as a member of the June '75 Class be a high one and a good one!

Sincerely,
Walter N. Nackoney
Vice-Principal

To the Class of 1975:

Whatever your future may be, I hope you will be both happy and successful, and that you will find great satisfaction in your life's work. I also hope you have many happy recollections of your days at Olney.

I urge you to consider seriously the matter of further education and that you explore all possible means of continuing your studies.

Sincerely,
Thomas G. Lynch III
Vice-Principal

To the Class of 1975:

May I congratulate you upon reaching a milestone to which many aspire and few achieve. Your class theme this year, "Reach the higher ground," is an excellent one. I hope it means that you wish to go on to better things. For those of you who will continue to reach for the higher ground, the future is bright.

Political, economic, and social forces have developed which we have not yet learned to understand or control. Many people, especially adults have become disillusioned and discouraged by the events of the day. This is a challenge to those of you who will reach the higher ground for you will be the leaders who will be charged with the responsibility for solving and resolving problems tomorrow. It is also imperative that all people receive an education sufficient to equip them with the resources to cope with the tremendous problems in our tense, rapidly changing world.

Sincerely,
William W. Bayne

To the Class of 1975:

ACADEMY FOR CAREER EDUCATION

Counselor-Coordinators Front Row: Vernetta Johnson, Julie Learner, Jerri Spann, Karon Waters and Joan McCall. Standing: John Philbin, Jim Nolan, Director, John Lieb and Ed Wheeler.

Secretaries: Seated: Peggy Fahy, JoAnn Hughes and Marie Brown. Standing: Sharron Merritt and Joanne Gilpin.

What does ACE stand for? The Academy for Career Education, a new program that offers students personal contact with various careers that may be open to them in the future. We have experienced how to deal with people from all different walks of life. Thanks to the Academy most of us will be able to choose our professions and set our goals. We have been exposed to a wide variety of positions in numerous fields ranging from health to mortuary science, retailing to manufacturing; communications to utilities; and law and justice to social and personal services.

Each Counselor-Coordinator is to be commended for the unusual consideration and time given to each student. We will always remember that we were treated as individuals and just not part of a crowd.

We hope that many other students will become interested and take advantage of the facilities that are offered. The experience is priceless. The rewards are fulfilling.

We, the graduating class of 1975, go forward from this program with confidence in the future.

The teachers in this department are the only ones in school who let their students bang on desks and play with keys and assorted ribbons while a lesson is in progress. Clacky keys, stamping out messages with firmness, seem to be saying, "Typewriter else! Or else. Or else!" Maybe that's why our hands move as fast as Olympic runners, pausing for neither "I" nor "U." Neither strain nor Joe nor room of light will slow us; you can't keep a good han' down!

Bookkeeping and accounting remind us that every woman has her figure and every man has his price. Shorthand might have been Hebrew or Braille, for all we knew about those funny looking symbols, but really, it was Greek to us. Clerical practice — and practice, and practice! They certainly don't call them "busyness subjects" for nothing! (Whew.)

It will all pay off, though, when a "shorthanded" executive who needs a special "type" of Gal Friday (not Friday the 13th) hires us survivors of Olney's commercial courses.

Typing 60 words per minute in our offices, we'll remember typing 5 w.p.m. on the 4th floor.

ENGLISH

Once upon a time, when us students come inta this here school and begun them English class, we couldn't spel or nuthin'! Them teachers sure did put us threw alot. There we were, stranded for years in a desert of sand-covered adjectives, dried skulls-ours, before a test — and thoughts that bumped around like tumbleweeds.

Monstrous, evil-looking sentences reached out their "clause" at us. Dictionaries of diction were crammed into our heads. Vocabulary lists made us listless; looking up and down and sideways on crossword puzzles crossed our eyes, and the work we had to do with synonyms — it was a sin! Nominatives were a "real case," too. Two "B's" or "C" or "D" — that was our question!.

Now the days of splitting our heads over infinitives and dangling from participles are over. We're real pros with pronouns and are reknowned for our success with nouns! In the process of learning, we almost murdered the grace (is there any?) of the English language. Thank you, teachers!

LANGUAGE

"Latin is a dead language —
That's very plain to see.
It killed off all the Romans
And now it's killing me."

The trouble we had with language classes! Pop quizzes. Funny endings. (They were funny till we got out marks.) Verbs — we wanted to indict the indicatives and pass over the passives.

Still, language is very important. If you can learn French, Italian, Spanish — a Latin background makes learning them easier — or German, there's a whole new group of people you can talk to. You can meet someone halfway. Communicate! Communication is the beginning of understanding. We can't save the world, but we can make our own little part of it a better place.

Art and music are special languages; they speak without words. Sight, sounds, and emotions are their alphabets, and they open themselves in truth to all of us.

The world is like a puzzle — all that's missing is a little piece. Language will help us find it.

SOCIAL STUDIES

History (or herstory) is "ourstory." "Arestory" — the way things were or are around us. Those teachers were always asking us for names, facts, and figures (Hmmm ... 36-24-36 ... I mean 1776, sir!"). How about a date? (How about a fig?)

We realized a lot of important things in our classes — for instance, that Pearl Harbor wasn't the last girl in the row. That the Pledge of Allegiance, which we'd assumed was one long slurry syllable like "Supercalifragilisticexpialadocious" and just as meaningful — really did mean something.

From books we RED, we felt the winds of change that BLUE. Then came the realization that the 13 stars, so WHITE, were from Independence Hall, not Hollywood. We learned about "sighcology" and the many (rat) races of man. We swallowed "mint-flavored" information about America's money system. We were carried on the "current" of events.

Since man invented the wheel, he has been wheeling and dealing. Like the little Dutch boy in the story, Nixon stuck his finger in the Water-Gate. He had as much success as the little boy; Watergate was a floodgate, and a broken one at that — a wholly holey mess!

World War won. World War lost. World peace — possible? — at any cost. World War, too. World wore pants, got too big for its britches and split at the seams. (Rrrrip!)

Some of us (gluttons for punishment) suffered through an extra year of history in 10th grade. Whirled Cultures kept whirling in our heads. Continents and Continental breakfasts, textile production and textbooks, "nayshins" and Olympic shins, "countrees" and cherry trees, ports and reports and reports ...

Daffynitions, History Style:
Precedent Washington — America's first laundromat
Linkin — a chain in our history
Litter — our Grossest National Product
Politicks — the evil bloodsucking bugs that bite politicians
Russian graveyard — a Communist plot

If we didn't want to study, balancing the 40-pound books was great for our posture. Anyway, we're glad we weren't born in 2001, because now we're living through the history that tomorrow's children will have to learn from texts even thicker than our own.

SCIENCE

Who can forget the science classes, which taught of the world around us? Oh, yes — and the rotten egg smell — that (cough, cough) was all around us, too. Everyone with scents could tell when the chem classes were burning sulfur! Remember cracking test tubes, the bright colors, and figuring out "RaRiAu$H_2$0. Ride the ferrous whell of memory!

Biology. We should've gotten physical fitness awards for climbing all those steps! Think of all the meals you wouldn't have skipped, of all the pounds you wouldn't have lost, without looking at those appetizing, smelly frogs 6th period.

The sliding rules of physics, sliding in our heads, poking holes in each other's fingers for blood in medical technology, learning some solutions to ecology's problems in environmental science ... Now we're making like trees and "leaving," but WHO can forget the science classes?

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Gym is the only place in school where, if a teacher says, "Jump!" we jump. We do jump — till we're at the end of our rope (literally). We have a fit over physical fitness!

Remember those lines for the bathroom? They made lines for The Exorcist seem short by comparison!

If you see the "troops in blue" on the first floor, don't worry. The navy isn't invading us. It's only the girls on their way to basement gym!

We certainly had a ball in gym. Basketball, Volleyball — you name it, we've had it!

All those dances we had to do! (What would they have said if we danced like that at the prom?)

It's all paid off though. For example, we're "unparalleled" on the bars when we do apparatus work. Also, we've been lucky enough to have some "fine" teachers — a fine for forgetting our locker combination, a fine for losing our sneakers . . . !

Mirror, mirror on the wall,
If we're ugly, don't tell all:
Like a proud, correct "Miss Prim."
Where's the phys. ed. department? We need gym!
And gym "kneads" us — like a lump of dough,
Straining ourselves so the bones won't show.

We girls, now, are weight watchers sitting around.
We're as big left to right as we are up and down!
We watch ourselves eat cake; we watch the scales, too —
We watch them go up to one- ninety-two!
Why can't we be curvy, attractive, and slim?
Where's the phys. ed. department? We need gym!
And gym "kneads" us — like a lump of dough,
Exercising ourselves so the fat won't show.

Industrial Arts is a grind. (It's also a lathe, a drill press, and a sander.) We used a shaper — what a shame we couldn't use that on our girlfriends, too! — and a ruler. (That's a 12-inch king, although some "weigh out fatheads" call it a "scale.")

When we "shoppers" signed up for this smorgasbord of courses, we knew we'd "hit bottom"; all classes are held in the basement.

We think that we shall never see
A board built lovely as a tree:
Indeed, wood's mangled by us all —
Why can't they just let trees stand tall?

Working industriously, we tried hard not to make too many "misteaks" (such as planing against the grain — that idea was made very "plane" to us).

Remember the car we took apart?
Even then, it wouldn't start!

We realize all the things we "auto" have done in auto shop. Oh — and what we "wood've" done in wood shop if we knew then what we know now! We deserve a medal for our work in metal shop.

Now we're done with learning,
So it's time for us to go
And begin to do our earning,
Being skilled from head to toe.

You cannot choose your battlefields,
The Gods do that for you.
But you can plant your standard
Where a standard never flew.

CLASS SPONSOR

To the Class of 1975:

As the years go by you will look through this book often, remembering friends, events, and places of long ago. But no matter how many years pass, our pictures will never change, and we will remain in the mind's eye, ever young.

So let it be with the ideas and ideals we have tried to give you at Olney High. Hopefully they will remain ever young, ever vigorous, guiding and assisting you as you move through the marvelous experience called life. I wish you luck in that experience, for you will need it. But even more I wish you the strength to stare life in the eye and triumph over it. And when you have a moment, look through these pages and softly remember.

Sincerely,
Mort Grossman
Class Sponsor

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Debbie Berdel, Vice President; Tracey Kershaw, Secretary; George R. Adams, President; Geraldine Croker, Treasurer.

Dear Classmates,

Now that we look back on the years that have passed, we tend to smile at all accomplishments and wish we had our problems to relive. But the past, as beautiful as it might have been, is unavailable to us now.

Many of the people today do not think when they make daily decisions. Remember, the world would be in much better shape if people would only put their brains in gear before they put their bodies into motion.

I would like to thank each and everyone of you who is responsible for making my years at Olney enjoyable. I would also like to say, "It's been such a long time."

Peace,
George R. Adams

THE HISTORY OF

October, 1974

We elected our class officers:

President — George Adams
Vice President — William Culbreath
Secretary — Tracey Kershaw
Treasurer — Geraldine Croker

April, 1974

We strained our brains to gain high scores on the College Boards. It worked for some of us . . . . . Oh, well we'll try again later.

May, 1974

Some of us dressed up for the first time in our lives when we boogied — that's right folks, boogied to the music of Axis at the Galaxy!

June, 1974

Luncheon at the Shack. We moved on up to become the seniors of Olney High School. Summer vacation — Here we come!

September, 1974

We come back to Olney with open minds — but with open senior minds.

October, 1974

Some of the college applications are going out. Good Luck!

November, 1974

Another try at the College Boards. All right gang — let's get out there and rake in those high scores.

December, 1974

I'm dreaming of a quiet Christmas — and that's exactly what we got. We also elected our senior class officers before leaving:

THE CLASS OF 1975

President — George Adams
Vice President — Debbie Berdel
Secretary — Tracey Kershaw
Treasurer —Geraldine Croker

January, 1975

We returned with those happy hangovers — that we're still trying to get rid of!!!!

February, 1975

We were hot until Gratz won 69-68! We almost (again) made it to the Championships.

March, 1975

Olney's bowlers brought honors to us with a city championship. Dragging along until Easter vacation. Ho! Hum!

April, 1975

The prom at the Doral on the 25th. Were you there? It was dynamite!

May, 1975

Senior shakes were upon us awaiting to hear if we made it or if there would be re-exams for us.

June, 1975

The class trip to Downington Inn was a TRIP! We got our yearbook symbolizing our memorable experiences here at Olney. Singing practice at Convention Hall after much work in our auditorium, and we finally got to walk down the aisles for our coveted diplomas on the night of the 20th. It was a long haul, gang!

Adios, Olney

TROJAN STAFF

Dear Classmates,

When we entered the halls of Olney we were boys and girls facing many new experiences in the complex of a large city high school. During our years here we have grown in maturity and knowledge and are now ready to take our place in today's society as men and women. Some of us have chosen to continue our education and others are seeking job opportunities in the business world. Whatever your choice, strive . . . work . . . and "reach the higher ground."

For all their help, my sincere thanks to the Trojan Staff, especially Susan, my co-editor.

May all the joys of happiness and success come to all of you in the Class of '75.

Fondly,
Joyce Lynn Bailey

Dear Everyone,

From dissected crayfish to gown fittings, we've stuck together. Now promising to remember, we separate.

I'd like to leave you my favorite accumulated guidelines for survival "out there"

1. Love the life you live, so you can live the life you love.

2. The only way to have your cake and eat it too, is to have two pieces.

3. If there's something you really value, let it go free. If it doesn't come back, it was never yours; if it does, love it forever.

4. Don't fill your life with years, but fill your years with life.

Thanks to all who helped with the Trojan.

Until we meet again, at class reunions or by chance, I wish you the essentials of happiness — something to do, something to love, and something to hope for. Good health, good luck,and goodbye.

Peace,
Susan Haverson

OLNEY HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Top Row: Judy Rosetsky, President; Suzanne Braxton Fox, 1st Vice-President; John Harkins III, 2nd Vice-President; Carmen Gerardino Mellon, 3rd Vice-President. Second Row: Alice Templin Bross, Treasurer; Linda Musial Assenmacher, Corresponding Secretary; Lois Schweikart O-Dell, Recording Secretary.

Reactivated in 1966, the Alumni Association has three main purposes — to create a permanent scholarship fund, to render service to the school, and to renew and maintain fond friendships through the newsletters and assistance to reunion committees.

As our newest members, you will be helping with scholarships for future students, aiding in projects such as the electronic scoreboard we presented to the school in 1971, receiving newsletters each fall and spring, and getting help with planning your future class reunions. Your ideas and suggestions will be most welcome. There's no generation gap in our group since we are all working for OUR school.

To the Class of 1975.

The Olney High School Alumni Association welcomes its newest members, the Class of 1975, and extends sincere congratulations to you on the achievement of one of life's important goals — your high school diploma. Be proud of it and let it inspire you to the attainment of future goals. We wish you the best of luck and look forward to reporting your successes in future issues of the Alumni Newsletter. Keep in touch!

Sincerely yours,
Judy Rosetsky, 1970

OUR JUNIOR CLASS SPONSOR

To the Class of '75

I enjoyed being your Junior Class Sponsor and the opportunity it gave me to get to know many of you. Your Junior Class Officers were responsible and enthusiastic, and I was happy to see that they were elected again to lead you in your Senior year. They made our contribution to the record-hop and bazaar a great success, bringing many customers to the bean-bag throw. The candy sale was a great success and helped raise money for your senior year activities. Most of all, they planned a beautiful Junior Prom for you at the Galaxy. Your junior year was a very productive one, and I'm sure your senior year was even better.

I wish all of you a future that is full of success and happiness. From my experiences with you last year, I feel that you have the ability and willingness to work that will result in great achievements.

Best of luck,
Barbara Bravo
